NW MOTORSPORTS Report

"Going fast is your job...Telling people about it is ours...!"

ETHAN EBERT IS NEWEST FALL CLASSIC WINNER

The 2025 Fall Classic winner at Tri City Raceway was Ethan Ebert from Tucson, Arizona driving a Jeff Jefferson race car that won the $10,000 first place money. Tri City Raceway photos by Elevate Racing Media

West Richland, Wash. (Oct. 5, 2025) — The Fall Classic has yet a new winner to add to its list following the 38th running of the race.

Ethan Ebert, driving a car owned by Jeff Jefferson claimed victory by just under 1.2 seconds Sunday afternoon on the half-mile Tri City Raceway tri-oval to claim the $10,000 first place money.

Ebert from Tucson, Ariz. led the race's final six laps to top Haeden Plybon from Spokane in the season-ending Northwest Super Late Model Racing Association race.

"We were using our doors out there," Ebert said in a NWSLM news release. "I think it just came down to who had more tire out there and we did."

There was some simple strategy that Ebert employed to earn the victory.

"It was just save, save, save", Ebert said. "This track is super abrasive, and we only get right side tires on the pit stop, so we just tried to save our lefts, our left rear. That was going to be our drive tire, and we needed that one."

Plybon led at five different times in the race including 143 through 194. According to reports, Plybon also did a remarkable job at one point saving things from a potential spin.

With his 10th place finish, Ryan Phipps from Burley, Idaho was crowned the 2025 champion.

April's Apple Cup winner at Tri City, Zach Riehl, was third with Thomas Stafford and Kasey Kleyn rounding out the top five.

Besides Kleyn, the 2024 camp, former Fall Classic race winners and their finishes included: Donnie Wenat (2022) DNQ and Naima Lang (2020, 2011 & 2012) 15th.

Tucson's Ethan Ebert and Haeden Plybon from Spokane wage an exciting side-by-side battle in the 38th Fall Classic. Ebert led the final six in the 27-car field. Tri City Raceway photos by Elevate Racing Media

WANT TO BE FEATURED IN OUR 'CHAMPION'S PROFILES?'

We're still asking 2025 racetrack champions to contact us to be featured in the NW Motorsports Report "Champion's Profiles" found each week in The Exchange classified paper.

Here's what we need:

1. Photo of car
2. Photo of driver (mug)
3. Point standings from your class
4. Brief (or not so brief) bio of you that covers your racing career and what you do when you are not racing. Family?
5. Any notable wins or awards?
6. Sponsors list; any crew you want to spotlight?

SHANE VAN GISBERGEN WINS AT ROVAL; LOGANO ADVANCES IN PLAYOFFS | By Reid Spencer-NASCAR Wire Service

Shane Van Gisbergen, driver of the #88 WeatherTech Chevrolet, drives during the NASCAR Cup Series Bank of America ROVAL 400 at Charlotte Motor Speedway on October 05, 2025 in Concord, North Carolina. NASCAR Photo

CONCORD, N.C. (October 5, 2025) — As expected, road course maven Shane van Gisbergen won Sunday's Bank of America Roval 400, but that was only a small part of the story at the Charlotte Motor Speedway Road Course.

Long after van Gisbergen took the checkered flag to record his fifth straight road course victory of the NASCAR Cup Series season, Ross Chastain made a banzai run in the frontstretch chicane and wiped out Denny Hamlin's Toyota in a desperate attempt to secure the final spot in the Playoffs' Round of 8.

Spinning after the contact with Hamlin's car, Chastain threw his car into reverse and sped backwards across the finish line, but the effort proved futile. The final Round of 8 spot instead went to defending series champion Joey Logano, who finished 20th and advanced by four points over the Trackhouse Racing driver.

A pair of mistakes on pit road cost Chastain dearly. At the first stage break, he ran wide into the 90-degree corner at the exit from pit road, missed the turn and came to a stop, losing 15 positions to restart 30th.

After recovering from that error and putting himself in position to advance, Chastain sped on pit road on Lap 87 of 109, ran long to the finish and lost too many spots on the final two laps to hold off Logano.

"(Trackhouse owner) Justin (Marks) hired me to carry this 1 car and to drive it and to be a leader, and I just completely unraveled our day," a crestfallen Chastain said. "We definitely had the speed on the last lap, yeah, and missed turn 7, and I slid the rear tires and let the 11 (Hamlin) by.

"Yeah, not acceptable. I just completely … you know, just completely unacceptable."

Logano was delighted to escape the race at the 2.28-mile circuit with the opportunity for a fourth NASCAR Cup Series title intact.

"Such a close finish there," he said. "Yeah, knew it was within a point there (before the last-corner collision). I knew we were going to be tied there at the end, and Ross was going to do whatever he had to do to make it happen. Geesh, just wasn't quite fast enough today with our car.

"It's the drama of the playoffs. If you want drama, the playoffs bring it every time."

Eliminated along with Chastain were pole winner Tyler Reddick (10th), Bubba Wallace (15th) and Austin Cindric, who needed a win to advance and instead finished last (37th) after a litany of issues throughout the race.

Ryan Blaney and Chase Elliott already had advanced to the Round of 8 with respective Round of 12 victories at New Hampshire Motor Speedway and Kansas Speedway. Race runner-up Kyle Larson, third-place Christopher Bell, William Byron, Chase Briscoe, Hamlin and Logano joined them after Sunday's elimination race.

Both Larson and Bell made van Gisbergen's task harder than usual. The New Zealander, however, was so good at managing his fragile tires that he finished the final 59-lap stage on two pit stops compared with three for his closest pursuers.

The result was a whopping 15.160-second margin of victory over Larson for the driver of the No. 88 Trackhouse Racing Chevrolet. The victory was his fifth of the season and sixth overall, and his five straight road course wins are one short of Jeff Gordon's series record, set from 1997 through 2000.

Both Bell and Larson were aggressive in their attempts to unseat NASCAR's current road course king. On Lap 63, Larson muscled his way past van Gisbergen, with Bell following into second.

After a cycle of green-flag pit stops, the Kiwi passed Bell for second. Eight laps later, he dived to the inside of Larson's No. 5 Chevrolet in the Turn 7 hairpin and regained the lead.

After another round of pit stops, SVG and Larson swapped the lead with significant contact between their cars before van Gisbergen passed Larson through the backstretch chicane on Lap 98 and held it the rest of the way.

"Yeah, just started getting hot and sliding around, but what an awesome race," van Gisbergen said. "Kyle and Christopher driving really good and got a little rough, but, man, the battle was awesome."

Non-Playoff drivers Chris Buescher, Michael McDowell, Ryan Preece and Daniel Suarez finished fourth through seventh, respectively. Elliott was eighth, followed by AJ Allmendinger and Reddick.

The Round of 8 begins next Sunday with the South Point 400 at Las Vegas Motor Speedway (5:30 p.m. ET on USA, PRN and SiriusXM NASCAR Radio).
